

First Name _____ Last Name: _____

GO to :

<http://www.crimestoppers-uk.org>

1)The purpose of this organization is to

FIGHT CRIME
WITHOUT REVEALING YOUR IDENTITY

in other words , it suggests that you can denounce people a _____y

2) then in the following menu:

a)-Select How we help to find the latest crimestoppers statistics and complete the following information:

_____calls have provided information allowing to arrest _____criminals and recover the value of _____ pounds of items that had been robbed .

-the Who is Crimestoppers? section will inform you about the type of organization crimestoppers is : it is an _____/_____ which means they depend neither on _____ nor on _____

- to know how the organization was born go to Our history and explain when the organization was created : _____

Which event led to its creation:_____

And where this event took place: _____

b)-Then in the main menu go to Giving information where they explain that if you call their number (which one ? _____) or fill in the online form , this will be perfectly anonymous as - _____

- _____

- _____

What advantage is there in calling them rather than submitting an information on line ?

c)-As it is a website dedicated to stopping crime you will find a list of the Most Wanted criminals. Try to find how many criminals are wanted internationally for fraud and forgery : _____ give their names _____ , _____ their nationality _____ and the countries that want them : _____

d)- Old people are often victims of distraction burglary; go to Crime prevention to understand what it consists in . Read more distraction burglary crime prevention advice.
What do they advise people to do about their money :

They give information about “waterboard” : What do you think that is and how do you think criminals might use that ?

e) Finally go to Media centre and answer the following questions :

how many people have been arrested thanks to crimestoppers information ?

What has been decided about Claudia Laurence’s case?

Which new service was launched in April 2010?

-In the side menu select Crime in the news and the articles dated August 2010.

Scroll down until you find the case: Cashier admits substantial theft from Birmingham law firm.

Read the article and answer those questions:

Who has been accused?

What has the person been charged with?

Where did she work?

How long had she worked there?

If you get to the article issued in the Telegraph, you will get more information about her real job and what she told her husband: Explain.

How much money did she eventually steal?

- Going back to the Support us page check 3 different ways of helping crimesupporters financially :
- You can do it by _____

3) Supposing you are ready to help them also in providing information about a crime , you can fill the online form

What is the crime or incident you'd like to tell us about?

- What is the crime or incident you'd like to tell us about? E.g. murder, burglary, drugs, fraud etc.
- When did it happen:
- Where did it happen:
- Reference number:

Fully describe the criminal activity or incident you wish to report, providing as much information as possible. If it relates to a specific incident, describe it in as much detail as you recall.

What do you know about the person involved?

- What is their name?
- Are they known by any other name, a nickname maybe?
- Do you know where they live or work?
- Please give us the address, including the town, county and postcode.
- Can you describe their property?
- Do you know their phone number, mobile or landline?
- Do you know their email address?
- Do they use Facebook, Myspace or similar?
- Have they been convicted of any crimes before?
- When and where did you last see them?

Can you describe the person involved?

Useful details to tell us include the person's race, age or date of birth, and sex.
 What is their height and build?

What is their hair like?

Do they have any distinguishing marks, a birthmark or scar?

Can you describe any tattoos they might have and where?

Who do they know? Are there other people involved?

What are the names or nicknames of the people they know?

What is their involvement?

Can you tell us their address, including the town, county and postcode.

What do they look like? Include race, age, sex, height and build.

Do you have a phone number for them?

Have they been convicted of any crimes before?

Does the person involved own a car or other vehicle?

Do you know the make, model and registration number?

What colour is it?

Does it stand out in any way?

Eg rims, tinted windows, special paint job, etc.

Were any weapons used or carried?

Does the person involved carry or use any weapons?

Can you describe the weapons?

Where are the weapons kept?

Crimestoppers will thank you for this information and you might be rewarded. To know how, go to Giving information and Rewards to know how much you will get, when and what procedure will be used to do so :
